

Mo' MAGIC meets with representatives from each of these categories, as well as community members, merchants and representatives from city agencies, twice a month to build community, leverage resources and empower youth.

The collaborative seeks to encourage positive behavior through civic engagement, social development and academic achievement