

2011 SUMMER LEARNING

Professional Development Conference

May 13, 2011

Please share this with all youth program line staff.

Professional development for the people on the front lines who provide direct service to children and youth for the summer. Inspiration and information.

Learn new strategies for enriching summer programs ~ helping kids' minds and bodies stay active.

Introductory presentation by Sangita Kumar and Tanya Mayo of Be the Change

Workshop topics include:

- Literacy
- Environmental education
- Science
- Project-based learning
- Songs, stories and traditions
- Math through activities
- Enrichment with crafts
- Learning differences
- Performing arts
- Behavior management
- Digital media
- Working with older youth

Brunch
Networking
Stimulating speakers
Interactive, practical workshops
Exhibitors
Workshops for program directors also provided

Where: First Unitarian Church
1187 Franklin Street, San Francisco

Times: 9am ~ 2pm

To Register: To register, please go to www.sfsummerlearning.org or e-mail brodkinm@sfusd.edu Registration deadline Friday, May 6.

Co-sponsors include: New Day for Learning/Summer Learning Network, National Summer Learning Association, City of San Francisco Department of Children, Youth & Their Families, San Francisco Unified School District, Partnership for Children and Youth, Sunset Neighborhood Beacon Center