Frequently Asked Questions

Where do we go?

Bring us to you! Our classes take place in schools and community centers or our dance studio held at the: African American Art & Culture Complex, 762 Fulton Street.

How many spots are available?

Attendance is important. Only 20 students are allowed in each class for individual attention and safety.

Are there performance opportunities?

Performances opportunities are based on good attendance and will take place towards the end of the session.

What to wear?

We have an order form and suggestions on where to get dance attire with the registration form.
