- Icebreaker - Wellness Check
- Presentations
 - Black to the Future, YCD - Crystal Brookter, Lead Program Coordinator, Young Community Developers, Inc. Family support and advocacy all over SF, not just district 10. Whether it be housing, student success in education, wellness checks, mentoring, help parents stay at work and students with mentors 101 in school. We work with Westside to provide therapeutic services, we also hold healing circles. Miss Mattie, holding safe to come together and heal. Assisting with resuming building jobs, violence prevention cohorts helps prevent violence from happening. Anybody can make a referral, blacktothefuturesf.org and submit a referral, and once received email, connect with the family coordinator and follow up so that you know we followed up, and make sure that the family knows that the referral is being made. Adrian Owens: Testimonials, Trying to meet more with schools/counselors. MaryLouise: Citywide? Or just D-10. Serving all black SF residents. Language capabilities? Other than English? Only, English, and specifically serve Black SF residents. My question: Has B2F organization received referrals during distance learning Influx of referrals, therapeutic, as well as education, they do wellness checks, check-in with young people, text, call, see why they don't show up with Saturday Academy, volunteering opportunities, for tutoring. Brittany: We used to have someone onsite for D-5. We at Ella Hill is a lead,

■ Community Hubs/Distance Learning

- Updates from Prince Hall Community Center, Hamilton Rec Center, Up On Top: Achievements, accomplishments, challenges, gratitude to USF tutors and support. Bill: "Potential, with more resources and attention, there is no limit to what can be done, super proud of everyone. We hope that schools recognize that 30+ class sizes doesn't work"

- Success Centers Adrian Owens: See attached Code ON Point Flyer; tech training with free MacBook Air.
- Community Action Grant Cycle 4 coming next week.(March 10th for application and dateline: March 31st! $1000 - $5,000)
- Youth Subsidized Employment Program, used to place youth 16-24 years for 500 hours.
- Become a reader/ranker, will be sending out applications 3/10 and deadline 3/31
- Working closely with SFHDC in Hayes Valley with workforce, their houses are being re-done. They're having to be in a new space, while they make these adjustments. We are looking for ways to support the children, during the summer, anyone that can support I'm happy to connect. Project can begin end of first week of April, and needs to be completed by end of June.
- Resource Guide Nayansey + Kim: Thank you to all that have responded/taken the time to complete the form. As a gentle reminder, for future resource guides, it will be a lot easier because we will only need to confirm the information that we have on file. That being said thanks again to all of you, for those of you that haven't already heard from either of us, you will be hearing from us soon because our deadline is quickly approaching. Brittany: to that note, this is our first one and we'd like to include everyone, and if we don't we hope that you understand that we tried, we need to send this off to our designer and get it printed by May. Thank you!
- Street Soccer: Soccer is coming back, will circulate flyer
- Up On Top: Tuition Free Summer Program: email bill@upontop.org Summer Hub.
- Handful Players: Wonderful to see the Black History Month was wonderful to see. Summer, we have been really busy this semester with being virtual with our partners like Booker T., Buchanan Y, Boys + Girls Club, Up On Top, we are running about 16 weekly performances, we are just starting to manage summer. Expanded summer so that kids have what they need to thrive. Reyna will reach out, we our working to get our staff vaccinated. Please reach out to me and we will reach out to you.
- Community Grows: Karen, also thinking about summer program, what can be done in the garden and working on BEETs program, paid internship 14-24.
- Brittany: Will not be able to host big summer events, but would love to brainstorm what can be done, even as sub-committees we can brainstorm what we can facilitate, support, program youth this summer.
- SFUSD - Leila: Recruiting for Summer Hosts, group of interns, offering opportunities for youth 16-18 starting in June 6 week commitment, and virtual opportunities. We are in recruitment process until end of March, email vegal@sfusd.edu
- No meeting First Thursday of April Brittany: Heads up not meeting the first week of April 1st, will not be meeting the first week of April, due to spring break and Brittany taking time off.

● If you have information that you would like to share with the group please feel free to email updates@momagic.org or nayansey@momagic.org
